

List of contributions

Plenary opening: Setting the scene

1. Opening remarks
Georgia Petraki, Associate Professor, Panteion University, Greece
2. Introduction to the WORKS project and the themes of the conference
Monique Ramioul, WORKS project co-ordinator, HIVA-K.U.Leuven, Belgium

Conceptualising globalisation and the role of the state

3. Conceptualising globalisation
Elmar Altvater, Free University Of Berlin, Germany
4. Conceptualising globalisation and the role of the state. Globalisation and national institutions: a shifting relationship
David Coates, Wake University, USA
5. Dynamics of national employment models in the era of globalisation: policy still matters
Steffen Lehndorff, IAT, Germany
6. Discussion
Ursula Huws, Working Lives Research Institute, London Metropolitan University, UK

Global corporate restructuring

7. The governance of global value chains: implications for industrial upgrading
Timothy J. Sturgeon, IPC-MIT, USA
8. Labour market intermediaries in the new economy
Chris Benner, Pennsylvania State University, USA
9. Discussion
Jörg Flecker, FORBA, Austria

Organisational restructuring, flexibilisation strategies and national institutional responses

10. The recoil of globalisation: flexibility and social inequality within metropolitan societies
Markus Promberger, IAB, Germany

11. The need for European company surveys
Peter Ester, OSA, The Netherlands

12. Discussion
Gérard Valenduc, FTU, Belgium

Social dialogue, worker organisation and representation

13. Trade unions and worker movements in the North American communication industries
Vincent Mosco, Queen's University, Canada

14. Relocation in Europe: challenges for trade unions
Béla Galgóczi, ETUI-REHS, Belgium

15. Offshore outsourcing of IT activities: FNV Bondgenoten's approach
Carla Kiburg, FNV Bondgenoten, The Netherlands

16. Discussion
Pamela Meil, ISF, Germany

Impacts on the quality of working life

17. Changes in work organisation and the impact on quality of working life - a European overview
Greet Vermeylen, European Foundation for the Improvement of Living and Working Conditions, Ireland

18. The quality of working life and the need for a new European social compromise between business and labour
Domenico Carrieri, University of Teramo, Italy

19. Discussion
Giovanna Altieri, IRES, Italy

The gender dimension

20. Work organisation, restructuring and gender
Patricia Vendramin, FTU, Belgium

21. Operationalising gender theory in research design
Ewa Gunnarsson, NIWL, Sweden

22. Discussion: From 'women' to 'gender contract': complementarities in concepts and in policy implications
Maria Stratigaki, Panteion University, Greece

Impact on workers, organisations and regions: empirical results

23. Customer service outsourcing from the public sector
Norene Pupo, CRWS, Canada
24. Call centres: a global or embedded production model? The 'Global call centre industry' project
Ursula Holtgrewe, FORBA, Germany
25. Call centres: a global or embedded production model? The 'Global call centre industry' project
Ole H. Sørensen, National Institute of Occupational Health, Denmark
26. Discussion
Geert Van Hootehem, CESO-K.U.Leuven, Belgium
27. Contextualising workers' lives in the global supply chain: case studies to and from Canada
Penny Gurstein, University of British Columbia, Canada
28. Similarities and differences of call centres in particular contexts
Anita Weiss, University of Colombia
29. Improving working conditions in call centres - experiences from Denmark
Inger-Marie Wiegman, Team Working Lives Consultancy, Denmark
30. Discussion
Vassil Kirov, Bulgarian Academy of Sciences, Bulgaria

The view from the South

31. Content of and access to knowledge in the knowledge-based society: a view from the South
Sujata Gothoskar, programme officer, Committee for Asian Women and researcher with the Forum, a women organisation in Mumbai, India
32. Overview on recent Morocco outsourcing experience: Taylorism or innovative activities?
Saâd Belghazi, INSEA, University of Rabat, Morocco
33. Productive restructuring and labour in Brazil
Marcia de Paula Leite, State University of Campinas, Brazil
34. Discussion
Carla Dahl-Jørgensen, Sintef, Norway

Rapporteur's summary

Ursula Huws, Working Lives Research Institute, London Metropolitan University, UK